1 2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON 3 AT TACOMA WACOM CO., LTD. and WACOM 4 TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION, 5 Plaintiffs, 6 ٧. Civil Action No. 3:14-ev-05106-BHS 7 BING BANG BOOM (also known as ASSET RESTRAINING ORDER DEALTRONICS), RALPH POPHAM, 8 CHARGEWORLD, VICTOR MCDOUGAL, MIELE'S (also known as 9 MANSTORE), JEFFREY WINTON, PUBLIC VERSION QUAVER (also known as STYLEBYTE), 10 MARTIN BALOG, SIMULSTORE, NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR: KULAP SIMONIS, TECHWAVE, MU 11 November 21, 2014 WEN JUAN, AND JOHN DOES 1-25. 12 Defendants. 13 14 15 This matter comes before the Court upon Plaintiffs Wacom Co., Ltd.'s and Wacom 16 Technologies Corporation's (collectively, "Plaintiffs") Ex Parte Motion for an Asset Restraining 17 Order freezing during the pendency of the litigation certain accounts and assets owned or 18 controlled by Defendants Bing Bang Boom (also known as Dealtronics), Ralph Popham, 19 Chargeworld, Victor McDougal, Miele's (also known as Manstore), Jeffrey Winton, Quaver (also 20 known as Stylebyte), Martin Balog, Simulstore, Kulap Simonis, Techwave, Mu Wen Juan, and 21 22 John Does 1-12 (collectively, the "Remaining Defendants"), or those acting in concert with them, 23 within the United States or otherwise in United States commerce. Having reviewed the materials 24 submitted, and being fully advised, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion as follows: 25 1. The Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Motion, and does so without notice to the 26 Remaining Defendants, because the Court finds: 27

- a. The Remaining Defendants could not be served with the Complaint or the Motion because of their own acts in supplying false names and address information in the course of their sales and business operations;
- b. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants, and venue for this action is proper in this Court. These findings are without prejudice to the Remaining Defendants, should they choose to contest personal jurisdiction and/or venue following service of the Complaint;
- c. Plaintiffs have carried their burden of showing a likelihood of success on the merits of their claim for federal trademark infringement of Plaintiffs' federally registered trademarks 3,344,421, 3,509,376, 3,534,336, 3,537,343, and 3,540,537 as alleged in Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint in this action;
- d. Plaintiffs will suffer immediate irreparable harm unless Defendants' assets are frozen and any transfer or other dissipation is restrained;
- e. There is a real and substantial probability that the Remaining Defendants, or others who are acting in concert with them, will secrete or transfer beyond the Court's jurisdiction the funds or other assets that are the subject of this Asset Restraining Order in the event such defendants learn of this Asset Restraining Order before the assets covered by the order are restrained, thus frustrating the ultimate relief that Plaintiffs seek in this action; and
- f. The balance of the parties' prospective harms, the equities, and the interests of justice and the public support granting such relief, because the harm to Plaintiffs from the denial of the requested ex parte order outweighs the harm to the Remaining Defendants' legitimate interests against granting such an order.

- 2. The Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Motion for an Asset Restraining Order freezing the Remaining Defendants' asset accounts, including any and all accounts with banks, credit card companies, stock brokerage firms, insurance companies and/or other financial institutions, and any and all linked or associated accounts, whether held in the name of one of the defendants, or under another alias, a true name, or those acting in concert with the defendants, and including accounts held in the name of any persons or entities who are joint owners or holders of any of the foregoing accounts.
- 3. The Asset Restraining Order is granted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, the Court's general equitable power, 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), and 18 U.S.C. § 2318(f)(3)(A).
- 4. The Court hereby RESTRAINS AND ENJOINS the persons and entities identified below who are indicated as Restrained Parties, from transferring, disposing of, encumbering or secreting any of the accounts or assets identified below as Restrained Assets:
